Dear Peter

Thank you for your letter. It's very interesting to learn about schools in the USA. I think schools in Viet Nam are a little different. Vietnamese students usually wear school uniform. Classes start at 7. 00 each morning and end 11. 15 in the afternoon. Students have a 30 -minute break after three periods. At break, many students play games, some go to the canteen and buy somethings to eat and drink. Othesr talk together. Our school year lasts for nine months from September to May. Then we have a three- month summer vocation. Please write soon and tell me about your summer vocation.

1. Schools in Viet Nam are different from schools in the USA
2. Students have a 30 minutes breaks after two periods.

We are in junior high school. We are in grade 7. School starts at seven in the morning and ends at eleven. We have four or five periods each morning. Each period lasts for 45 minutes. After the first two periods, there is fifteen-minute recess, during which we go to the canteen for a mid-morning snack or a soft drink. The recess ends with a set of 5-minute exercises.

We go to school everyday except Sunday. We have to wear uniform at school: a white shirt, a pair of blue trousers and if you are a member of Young Pioneer Organization, a red scarf, is a part of the school uniform. In Physical Education, we have to be in sportswear.
